Plans for extending a welcome to the tourists who will arrive in Honolulu Friday morning at 10 o'clock on the Great Northern from San Francisco and Los Angeles, were perfected this morning when members of committees from the Chamber of Commerce, the Ad Club, the Promotion Committee and the Commercial Club held a conference in the Chamber of Commerce's rooms.

Members of all the organizations will be on the dock when the ship arrives on her first trip over the new route and several of them will go out on a hunch to give "Aloha" to the passengers. Leis are to be distributed and a pamphlet has been prepared in which is given information latter to peddling the drug.

Jones and Clifford, with F. Page, A. Williams and A. A. White, all former soldiers, all were arrested by Cap-tain of Detectives A. McDuffle last week on complaints made by army surgeons at the post, who reported the theft of more than 50 bottles of drugs. Warrants for the arrest of the defendants were issued by the district attorney's office yesterday and served by Marshall J. J. Smiddy.

Page, White and Williams will have their cases heard by Commissioner Curry at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The defendants have been committed to Oahu prison. Jones and Clifford
